SECTION 1 — PURPOSE & APPLICABILITY

1.1 Purpose

Orting Junior Wrestling is committed to providing a safe, positive, respectful, and competitive environment where young athletes can develop through the sport of wrestling.

This Code of Conduct establishes the standards of behavior and participation expected of individuals involved in Club programs and activities and is intended to promote athlete safety, good sportsmanship, personal responsibility, respect, and the values of Orting Junior Wrestling.

1.2 Applicability

This Code of Conduct applies to all OJW athletes, parents and guardians, and other individuals attending or participating in Club activities as spectators or guests.

These expectations apply during practices, competitions, tournaments, team events, Club-sponsored activities, and other circumstances in which an individual is participating in or reasonably representing Orting Junior Wrestling.

1.3 Responsibility to Follow Club Standards

- I. Participation in Orting Junior Wrestling is conditioned upon compliance with this Code of Conduct, the Club's Bylaws and applicable policies, and the rules and requirements of governing organizations, leagues, tournament hosts, and facilities in which OJW participates.
- II. Parents and guardians are responsible for reviewing these expectations with their wrestler and helping ensure their wrestler understands and follows the standards applicable to them.

1.4 Board Authority

- I. This Code of Conduct is adopted under the authority of the Orting Junior Wrestling Board of Directors in accordance with the Club's Bylaws.
- II. The Board retains authority to interpret and enforce this Code and to take reasonable corrective or disciplinary action when necessary to protect athletes, maintain appropriate standards of conduct, or serve the best interests of the Club.

- II. If a wrestler will miss a required practice, the wrestler or parent/guardian should communicate with the coaching staff in advance whenever reasonably possible.
- III. Coaches may consider attendance, participation, effort, readiness, and other appropriate factors when making decisions regarding competition opportunities or Varsity participation.

2.3 – Practice Conduct & Effort

Wrestlers are expected to arrive prepared to practice, participate to the best of their ability, and contribute to a productive training environment.

During practice, wrestlers shall:

- a. Listen when Coaches are providing instruction.
- b. Participate in assigned drills, conditioning, technique, and other activities.
- c. Work safely and appropriately with assigned partners.

- III. Wrestlers are expected to follow Coach instructions regarding safe wrestling technique, practice partners, and participation.
